

Why you need Monadnock at Home

Most people would prefer to remain in their own homes as they age. However, bit by bit, staying put gets more complex as we grow older and find we need help doing the things we once did easily by ourselves. Monadnock at Home (MaH) is a community of residents who intend to remain in their own homes as long as they possibly can.

Our goal is to make available whatever services are needed to keep people independent, part of the community and secure. Members can simplify their lives by making one phone call whether they need someone to chop wood or provide transportation, to find a handyman or home healthcare provider, or any number of other aids to help them remain in their own home, comfortably and securely.

There also will be an opportunity to volunteer in the MaH community. We welcome members and non-members who would like to share their time and talents to enable their friends and neighbors to happily and safely stay in their homes.
